

2022 Impact Report

Learn more about OneVillage Partners' impact throughout rural Sierra Leone at onevillagepartners.org/impact

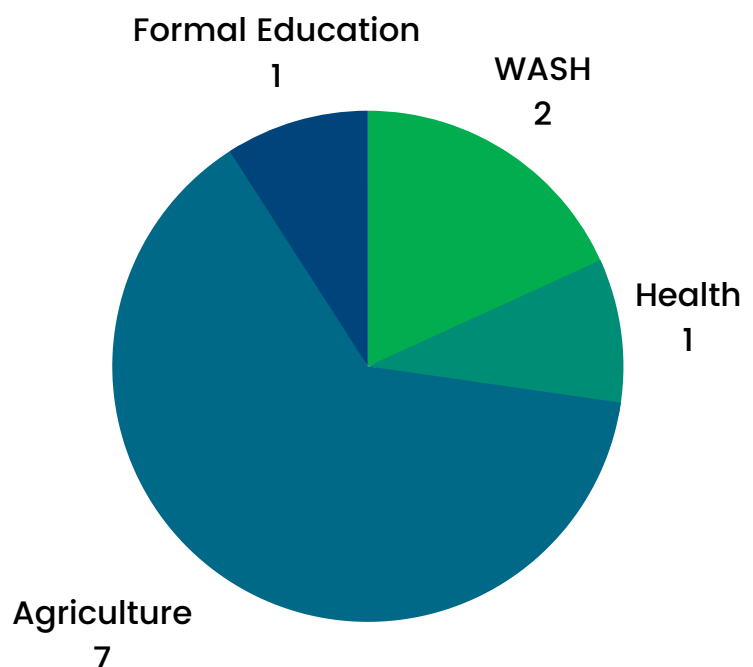

38,943 total population of partner communities

32 partner communities in Sierra Leone

323 participants in the Nurturing Opportunities for Women programs (NOW)

285 active community volunteers trained by OneVillage Partners

11 completed and ongoing community-led projects across 5 focus areas

Inclusive Leadership: Impact for the Future

211%

increase in volunteer-leaders gaining a community leadership position after program completion of community members believe that decision-making is shared at the community level

Gender Equity: Changing Mindsets

553%

increase in women being involved in decision-making in their household and at the community level of speakers at community meetings were women

Resiliency: Health & Wealth

 73% reduction in diarrheal disease in communities implementing WASH projects

NOW: Household Finances participants reported a combined estimated savings of $8,500 USD increase in household income among NOW: AgriBusiness participants

Social Cohesion: Working Together for Development

 81% of households made monetary contributions to community development projects with OneVillage Partners

 98% of NOW: Household Finance participants shared the learning materials with someone outside the program

 78% of volunteer-leaders met with another community member outside of their engagement with OneVillage Partners to discuss continued community development